COSTMARY or ALECOAST.

NAMES.

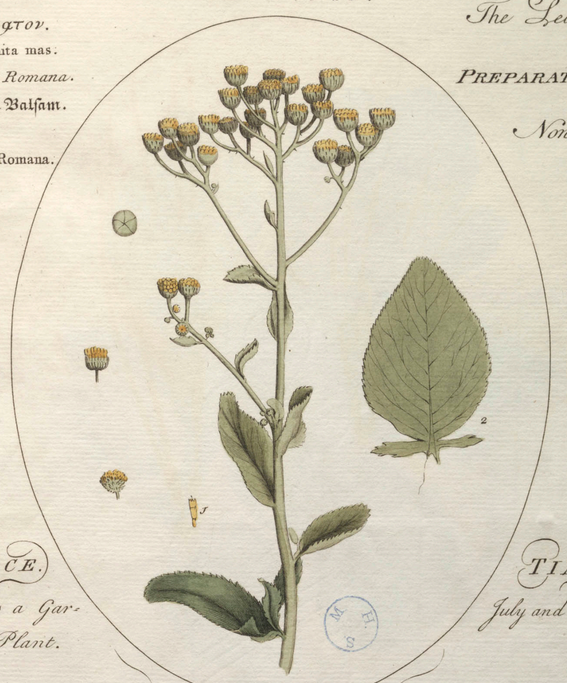
A.
G. Αγηερτον.
L. Balſamita mas.
I. Salvia Romana.
G. Roſten Balſam.
F.
S. Salvia Romana.
D.

PARTS USED.

The Leaves.

PREPARATIONS.

None.



PLACE.

This is a Garden Plant.

TIME.

July and Aug.st

DESCRIPTION.

From a long hard, Stringy root, Creeping in the Ground, grows a firm Craneld Stalk, of a light green with Some white hairs The Leaves have but few Veins of a light Green with serrated Edges. the Cup is form'd of many small Scaly parts of a light green, but towards the Edges darker. each Cup enclose many flowers, 1. of a Rich Yellow. 2. is a Leaf preſsed flat to shenr the true Shape. The Flowers are of a very Rich Yellow.

VIRTUES.

It is used as a Stomachic, and against Dropsy and Jaundice, and to Expel Wind.

T. Sheldrake delin. C.H. Hemerich Sculp.